Categories 3 and 4. Stepparents and Name-Relatives

The third category to which the marriage prohibitions are extended—ego's stepparents, and so on—needs no further elucidation.

Regulation Of Marriage

The fourth category comprises certain name-relatives. Ego should not marry (1) anyone who has the name of his parents or offspring; (2) the parent, offspring, or sibling of opposite sex of anyone who has the same name as ego; (3) anyone who has the same name as ego's spouse's parent or ego's son's or daughter's spouse. #Toma explained that if he married one of those persons, it would “sound as though” he had married his parent, offspring, or one of the above close affines.

DEVIATION FROM THE RULES

The !Kung deviate from their marriage prohibitions to some extent, and they have a gradation of feeling about the severity of the offense when a marriage rule is broken. Incest with the nuclear family or parent of spouse or spouse of offspring would be horrifying, but a man's marrying
