Ntene = father's sister (term derived from a root ta which has also given tana, tene, interdiction). The maternal aunt is the for-bidden woman of this generation. The same is true for the father's wives and those women they consider as sisters. This relative wields a great influence in the family, and her curse is greatly feared. The children of the ntene-muso are called kalame, and they call the  66 children of their mother's brother kalame. The kalame-w joke
